

Man in Garage

[Music: Jarmo Pitkänen Lyrics: Tero Arteli]

There is this man in garage
he's rebuilding some Volvos, fi xin' some Harleys
doing all that he want.

There is this man in garage,
he is watching his TV,
Listen some radio,
doing all that he want.

But he sure love his family and taking care of them good.
But every man should have place to do all that he want.

There is this man in garage
he's rebuilding some Volvos,
fi xin' some Harleys
doing all that he want.

There is this man in garage,
he is watching his TV,
Listen some radio,
doing all that he want.

His wife is not cleaning anything in that place.
I just look like a mess but he know right place for all.

There is this man in garage
he's rebuilding some Volvos,
fi xin' some Harleys
doing all that he want.

There is this man in garage,
he is watching his TV,
Listen some radio,
doing all that he want.

There is fridge for his beers and tools to do whatever Garage is kingdom of freedom and place to save his mind.
