Highway 25

(Tero Arteli)

It's a long long way when I hit a highway twentyfive.
It's a long long way when I hit a highway twentyfive.
But this road's gonna lead me through the all this misery.

I lost you sometime after new years eve,
I lost you sometime after new years eve,
But now is time to find You, and start this all over again

I hope I'll find You when I drive down Highway twenty five.
I hope I'll find You when I drive down Highway twenty five.
Would you stand in a bus stop, or the yard of gas station.

There's stil road to go and I wan't to see where you are,
There's stil road to go and I wan't to see where you are,
It's getting dark and start raining, I cannot find you today.

But now I see you now at my doorway,
and you can guess how it end!
