Where Souls Stood and Stared
(Patrick Houbaux)

I was waiting on the crossroads
Where souls stood and stared
Only thing I had was my load
And nobody was there

I was dreaming of the past
When I used to be with you

I left my head in other lands
Where souls stood and stared
Only thing I had was my hands
Which came together for prayer

I was dreaming of my life
That I spent with you

I was sitting on the dark side
Where souls stood and stared
I only had to pay with pride
To raise my soul in the air

I was dreaming of the future
That it should have been so good
I was dreaming of the future
That it should have been with you
